

Monterey Board Wins CREA Service Award

The Monterey Peninsula Board of Realtors is this year's winner of the "Winged Victory" G. D. Robertson sweepstakes trophy for outstanding and best all-around service to the public, community, and members among real estate boards which are members of the California Real Estate Association.

The announcement was made during the 62nd Annual CREA Convention, in session this week in San Francisco. Some 4,000 Realtors, real estate salesmen, and their guests from throughout the state are attending the five-day gathering.

The award was presented by Burt Smith of Bellflower, president of the 52,000-member association, and Zelma Ladd of Fresno, chairman of the CREA Achievement Committee. The competition is held each year.

JUDGING IS based on each board's educational work, advertising, public relations, enforcement of high ethical standards, maintenance of high membership rating, and cooperation with state and national Realtor associations. Their work is submitted in the form of large "achievement books" documenting activities.

The distinguished achievement award, presented by the Title Insurance and Trust Co., to the board with the highest over-all rating, went to the Downey Board of Realtors.

Winner of the Los Angeles Realty Board's perpetual trophy for achievement by boards with less than 100 members was the Ventura Board of Realtors.

THE BOARD judged the best in education and professional advancement was the Newport Harbor-Costa Mesa Board of Realtors. In the membership category, the Whittier District Board of Realtors was proclaimed winner.

The award for the best service to members, the Arthur J. DeFano Perpetual trophy, went this year to the Santa Barbara Board of Realtors. The public relations and community service award, known as the C. Victor Sturdevant perpetual trophy, was won by the Fresno Realty Board.

The Bellflower District Board of Realtors, Compton-Lynwood

Board of Realtors was presented the plaque for the best participation in state and national activities.

The Palmdale Board of Realtors was presented a plaque as the outstanding first time entry.

A CERTIFICATE of Achievement was also presented to the following boards:

Antelope Valley Board of Realtors, Bakersfield Board of Realtors, Burbank Board of Realtors, Compton-Lynwood

Board of Realtors, Covina Valley Board of Realtors, Garden Valley Board of Realtors, Glendale Board of Realtors, Long Beach District Board of Realtors, and Ontario-Upland Board of Realtors.

Others receiving certificates were Redwood City-San Carlos-Belmont Board of Realtors, San Bernardino Board of Realtors, Southwest Board of Realtors, Southern California Board of Realtors, Alameda County Board of Realtors, and West Contra Costa Board of Realtors.

Hawthorne Sets Coin Exposition

Plans for the annual Hawthorne Coin Exposition, scheduled Oct. 28 through 30, at the Hawthorne Memorial Building, Prairie Avenue and El Segunda Boulevard, are being completed, according to the Hawthorne Chamber of Commerce.

Speech and Hearing Association Southern Region Conference in Newport Beach Friday and Saturday.

The annual show will feature some 80 booths for bourse dealers. Upwards of 5,000 persons are expected to attend the exposition, which is billed as "the best coin show in America," according to Myron Wiest, chairman of the show.

Bronze medallions, specially struck for the third annual exposition, will be available to the first 3,800 persons attending the show. Silver medallions — 136 will be struck and individually numbered — will be offered for sale at $10 each. Medallions minted for previous shows are now valued at $22 each.

Thirteen categories of coin and currency exhibits will be on display.
